 - The Gift of Faith
 - The Gift of Healing
 - The Gift of Miracles
 2. The Spiritual Gift of Faith is not our faith that I’m referring to. It is a portion of God’s faith that is supernaturally imparted in a believer’s life by the Holy Spirit.
 3. The Spiritual Gift of Faith is a supernatural manifestation of the Holy Spirit that operates in and through a believer’s life.
 4. The Spiritual Gift of Faith will work closely together with the gift of healing and the gift of miracles. All the other Gifts of the Holy Spirit do so as well.

- (John 11:38-44) – “Jesus raise Lazarus from the dead.”
 - Everything that Jesus said and did was through the manifestation of the Holy Spirit power and what He spoke was God’s will for His life and that situation. The results received was healing and a miraculous miracle.
 - The Holy Spirit power is supernaturally manifested in and through you, but not you or your words that hold any power of themselves.
5. Let me make this point clear when referring to the Gift of Faith that is manifested supernaturally through the power of the Holy Spirit.
 - It is not faith in a human being or their natural abilities.
 - It is not faith in faith or faith in something that is outside of the Sovereignty of God.
 - The object of the believer’s faith is God and His Son Jesus Christ.
 - The supernatural power that is manifested through all these gifts is the Holy Spirit.
 6. The Gift of Faith and faith in general never operates outside of the Word of God and the will of God. This is true with all the gifts of the Holy Spirit.
 - To please and honor God, every believer must walk by faith. (Hebrews 11:6)
 - To please and honor God, it must be grounded and operate in love. (1 Corinthians 13:1-2, Galatians 5:5-6, 1 Thessalonians 1:2-4)
