

The Parable of the Pompous Guest

Luke 14:1-14

- In the Book of Matthew 13:10, Jesus began using parables to teach about the kingdom of heaven.
 - According to Mark 4:34, “Jesus did not say anything to them without using a parable and when He was alone with His disciples He would explain what He meant.”
 - Purpose: To assist us in growing in our understanding by exploring these divine truths found Christ teaching.
 - Objective: To teach us what they mean and how they relate to our present and future life in Christ Jesus.
 - Goal: To allow the Holy Spirit speak to our hearts and draw us closer to Jesus Christ.
- The Parables that have been taught
 - The Parable of the Sower. (Matthew 13:3-9, 18-23)
 - The Parable of the Wheat and The Weeds (Matthew 13:24-30)
 - The Parable of the Mustard Seed. (Matthew 13:31-32)
 - The Parable of the Leaven (Matthew 13:33, Luke 13:20-21)
 - The Parable of the Hidden Treasure (Matthew 13:44)
 - The Parable of the Pearl of Great Price” (Matthew 13:45-46)
 - The Parable of the Dragnet (Matthew 13:47-51)
 - The Parable of the Householder (Matthew 13:51-53)
 - The Parable of the Wineskins (Luke 5:34-39, Matthew 9:14-17, Mark 2:18-22)
 - The Parable of the Talents (Matthew 25:14-30, Luke 19:12-26)
 - The Parable of the Barren Fig Tree (Luke 13:6-9)
 - The Parable of the Workers in the Vineyard (Matthew 20:1-16)

The Parable of the Pompous Guest”

Luke 14:1-14

- Before we study and examine the parable of the Pompous Guest, we must look closely at the setting where it takes place. (vs. 1-6)
1. Jesus is invited by the Chief Pharisee (leader of the Pharisees), to eat bread at his home on the Sabbath. (vs. 1)

- The Pharisees and lawyers (religious leaders) “watched” Jesus closely. (vs. 1)
 - The word “watched” means they were being critical, looking for fault, error, or mistakes both in His character and behavior.
 - Their motives for having Jesus present for dinner was not genuine or sincere. It not to show appreciation or celebrate both His deity and humanity.
2. Jesus notices a certain man who was there before Him who had a condition called “dropsy” which is a buildup of fluid in the body. (vs. 2)
- The man was there at the Chief Pharisee house and before Jesus either by his own will or the will of the Chief Pharisee.
 - The man was suffering severely from a physical condition.
 - The Pharisees and lawyers were suffering severely from a spiritual condition.
 - Jesus was among all these religious leaders, but why was He the only one to show deep concern, mercy and compassion for the man.
3. Jesus knew that the man was suffering physically and needed help. But He also knew the spiritual condition that was rooted in the heart of these religious leaders. (vs. 3)
- Jesus answering. Teaches us that He already knew the motives within their hearts.
 - Jesus spoke. Teaches us what His concerns were and at the same time exposing the error of their ways. (vs. 3)
 - The Sabbath. It means to rest, cease or to stop. It was a holy and sacred day before God. A day set aside to rest, honor and worship God. (Genesis 1:1-31, 2:1-3, Exodus 20:8-11)
 - Jesus asked the question. “Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath?” (vs. 3)
 - Jesus was aware that it was the Sabbath and the importance of it. He was there with God, when God created all creation in six days and rested from His work on the seventh day. (John 1:1-3, Colossians 1:15-17)
 - Jesus was asking them, “Which need is considered more important and serve God’s greater purposes?”

- Healing the man.
 - Keeping the Sabbath.
 - Jesus was pointing out that keeping the Sabbath was more than a strict form of rules, religious practices or ritual.
 - The Sabbath day is important to God and should be observed but not abused.
 - Serving and ministering to the needs people is also important to God as well.
 - Jesus knew exactly what they believed and their position on the matter.
 - It was unlawful to heal this man.
 - It was a violation of the law, but a law that each religious leader violated.
 - It could be no exception to the rule and all religious practices must be followed.
4. The Pharisees and lawyers remained silent. (vs. 4)
- They said nothing in response to Jesus question. Why were they afraid to answer Jesus question?
 - The fear of being exposed as a hypocrite.
 - The fear of being exposed as legalistic. The word “legalism” means strict rules, excessive conformity to the law or to a religious or moral code.
 - The fear of losing support from those who were loyal to them.
 - The fear of losing their position of power and recognition.
 - The fear of having their religious rules, forms and practices questioned.
- Jesus heals the man and let him go. (vs. 4)
 - Jesus observed the man’s need and showed him love, mercy and compassion.
 - The Pharisees and lawyers observed the Sabbath and looked passed his needs.
5. Jesus answered them with a personal question to reveal how shallow their religion and beliefs were. (vs. 5)
- (vs. 5) “Which of you having a donkey or an ox that fallen into a pit, will not immediately pull him out on the Sabbath day?”

- Jesus knew that these religious leaders would each put their own personal needs before Sabbath day. (vs. 5)
 - The Sabbath day should have been received as a blessing from God and not a burden to people.
 - The Sabbath day should have been received as an opportunity from God to serve people and not be servant to a set of strict rules and religious practices.
 - The Sabbath day should have been received as a joyful day of rest, worship and reflecting on the goodness of God and growing in our relationship with Him and not for judgement or to place people in bondage.
 - Jesus knew that these religious leaders only sought to use and abuse the Sabbath day to serve their religious purposes and not the purposes of God.
 - Sadly, we see this far too often throughout Christendom. Men and women who are twist the Word of God to benefit them and serve their own selfish agenda.
6. Neither the Pharisees or the lawyers could give an answer regarding what Jesus said. (vs. 6)
- The Pharisees and lawyers who were consider experts of the law, should have known these things through their study of Scripture. (Mark 2:23-28)
- 1) The Sabbath is not about a set of strict rules and regulations. (vs. 23-24)
 - 2) Jesus uses David as an example while questioning their knowledge of Scripture. (vs. 25-26)
 - Jesus was pointing out that the he and His disciples' actions were justified as were David and his men.
 - 3) Jesus makes it clear that the Sabbath was made for man and not man for the Sabbath. (vs. 27)
 - Jesus was not saying that the Sabbath was not important and serves no purpose in the sight of God and man.

- Jesus was simply saying that observing the Sabbath day (rest and worship), shouldn't prevent us from helping and serving those in need.
 - It shouldn't prevent us from showing love, forgiveness, compassion and mercy toward others.
- 4) Jesus declares Himself as the Lord of the Sabbath (vs. 28).
- Jesus, as God and the Son of Man, established the Sabbath. He knew the purpose in which it was to serve as a blessing and benefit to man.
 - Jesus, He is the only One who can bring true spiritual rest and fulfillment in a person life.
- In this parable of the Pompous Guest we will explore and examine (3) three important areas: (Luke 14:7-14)
 1. Honor. (vs. 7)
 2. Humiliation. (vs. 8-11)
 3. Humility. (vs. 12-14)
 - What does the word "Pompous" mean?
 1. It means arrogant, boastful, prideful, or one who promotes self rather than God.
 2. The "Pompous Guest" refers to a person who acts arrogantly, conceited, pretentious, egoistical, self-seeking ambition, and self-exaltation of oneself. (2 Peter 2:18, Jude 1:16)
 3. It is opposite of meekness and humility which was found in our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. (Philippians 2:5-8)
 - The First thing we must study and examine is "Honor" in this parable. (vs. 7)
 - Jesus is still at the Chief Pharisee's house as a guest along with the other invited guest. (vs. 7)
 - Jesus accepts the invitation from the Chief Pharisee (Leader over all the Pharisees).

- Jesus was not insecure or threatened by this Pharisee who held a prominent position of authority or anyone else that was associated with him.
 - Jesus knew who He was and the purpose of being there.
 - Jesus' concern was reaching the lost in the world no matter their position, power, or possession. Jesus wanted to see sinners saved. (Matthew 9:9-13, Luke 19:10)
- Jesus' observation of the Pompous Guest. (vs. 7)
- 1) The Chief Pharisee held the highest seat of honor.
 - The "honored host" would be seated in the center.
 - 2) The Invited Guest of honor began to choose the "best places" (best seat) that was closest to the Chief Pharisee regardless of their position.
 - The further away from the center where the "honored host" was seated, was viewed as being the lowest seats of honor.
 - Jesus didn't turn a blind eye or make an excuse for the attitude and behavior of these religious leaders. (Matthew 7:15-20)
 - Jesus observed their perception of themselves and the position that they held.
 - Jesus knew that they saw themselves superior and above the Word; that it didn't apply to them.
 - These Pompous Guests (religious leaders) actually believed that the closer they get to the person or position, the closer they were to God.
 - 3) Everyone except Jesus was probably rushing and pushing to be seated next to the Chief Pharisee. But why?
 - They were all seeking for honor and recognition.
 - They were all seeking for association and opportunity by those in higher power.
 - They were all seeking for self-fulfillment by basing their identity and self-worth upon where they were seated.

- Jesus exposes a concerning problem and behavior of the Pompous Guest. The reality that exists in Jesus' day and in today's society.
 - People desire to be seen as more important than others.
 - People are very sensitive about what people say and think of them.
 - People view themselves both positively and negatively by what others have and accomplished in life.
 - People who seek honor and recognition from those in higher position exposes their insecurities and lack of awareness of the sovereignty of God.
 - People will consider only the honor of men (temporary or earthly honor) and not the honor of God (eternal reward).

- What does the word "Honor" mean?
 1. The word "honor" means to show high esteem, respect, value, to bestow worth upon or significant regard toward someone or something.
 2. God is not against showing "honor" but "not worship" to those person or individuals who are:
 - Fellow Believers (Body of Christ). (Romans 12:9-13, 1 Timothy 5:1-2, 1 Corinthians 12:12-27)
 - Spouse (Husband and Wife). (Ephesians 5:22-33, 1 Peter 3:1-7)
 - Parents and Grandparents. (Exodus 20:12, Ephesians 6:1-3)
 - Widows. (1 Timothy 6:3-8, 16, James 1:26-27)
 - Elderly. (Leviticus 19:32, Proverbs 16:31, 20:29)
 - Government and Political leaders. (Romans 13:1-7, 1 Peter 2:11-17, 1 Timothy 2:1-4)
 - Ministry Leaders and True Servants of God (Ephesians 4:11-12, Romans 10:14-15, 1 Thessalonians 5:12-13, 1 Timothy 5:17-21)
 - Employers and Employees. (1 Timothy 6:1-2, Ephesians 6:5-9, Colossians 4:1, Deuteronomy 24:14-15)
 3. God and His Son Jesus Christ are most deserving of all honor, glory, and worship. (1 Chronicles 29:10-15, Psalm 29:1-2, John 12:26, 1 Timothy 1:12-17)

- God is the Sovereign creator and ruler of all that exist in the heavens, earth and the universe. (Genesis 1-2, Psalm 24:1-2, Isaiah 40:28-31, Colossians 1:15-18, Revelation 4:11)
 - God established divine order for all mankind in the earth. (Genesis 1:26-28, 2:15-25, 1 Corinthians 11:3)
 - God is the source of life, judgment and redemption. (John 3:16-17, 5:22-30, 10:10, 27-30, Romans 6:23, Ephesians 1:3-10, Colossians 1:13-14, Hebrews 9:22, 1 John 1:7-9, Revelation 1:1-8)
 - All authority is subject to the God who is above all authority. (Matthew 22:17-22, 28:18-20, Luke 10:17-24, Romans 13:1-2)
 - Jesus' Kingdom is not an earthly kingdom but a heavenly Kingdom. (John 18:28-38, Revelation 19:11-16, 1 Timothy 6:13-19)
- The Second thing we must study and examine is “Humiliation” in this parable. (vs. 8-11)
 - Jesus gives some practical advice in this parable. (vs. 8-10)
 - 1. What not to do as an invited guest. (vs. 8-9)
 - Do not choose the best places or more honorable seats to sit. Why?
 - There could be someone that is more honorable, deserving, distinguished and notable than you who was also invited.
 - It could lead to “humiliation” shame and embarrassment if the honored host asks you to move to a lower place or lesser seat.
 - It also can be humbling.
 - 2. What to do as an invited guest. (vs. 10)
 - Choose the lowest place or lesser seat to sit. Why?
 - The honored host who invited you will be the one who ask you to take a more honorable seat.
 - All those around you will witness such great honor given by the honored host.
 - What does this mean for the believer and unbeliever?
 - 1. There's nobody more honorable and greater than our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. (Revelation 21:6, Philippians 2:9-11, Acts 4:11-12)
 - Jesus Christ is the only way to that eternal place with God. (John 14:1-6)

- Jesus Christ will be the judge of who will be seated with Him in that glorious place called Heaven. (John 5:22, 27-29. Acts 10:42-43, Romans 14:7-12, 2 Timothy 4:1, 1 Peter 4:1-6)
 - The reality is their worldly gains, promotions, recognitions, and accomplishments will mean absolutely nothing at the end of their life. (Mark 8:36-37)
 - It will not get them a seat into heaven if they are not saved and their name is not written in the Lamb's Book of life. (Revelation 20:11-15)
- Jesus express two things that are significantly different between the Self-exalted and the person God exalts. (vs. 11)
 1. Self-exaltation will be humbled. Those who walk in pride and arrogance.
 - Jesus said, "Whoever exalts himself will be humbled..." (vs. 11)
 - Jesus didn't say, "Whoever exalts himself will possibly be humbled."
 - There are Six things about the person who exalt themselves in a prideful and arrogant manner.
 - 1) They seek to humiliate and demean.
 - 2) They seek to shame and embarrass.
 - 3) They seek to destroy and damage a person's character or influence in order to exalt themselves.
 - 4) They seek to degrade and devalue a person's ability, position, appearance or performance.
 - 5) They act and behave self-sufficiently.
 - 6) They wander through life being unfulfilled and lacking true peace no matter their appearance, position, possession and religious practices.
 - Jesus makes it clear that they will be humbled both in this life and by God in eternity. (vs. 11, Proverbs 29:23)
 - The person who exalts himself will be brought down openly to the lowest seat for everyone to witness.
 - There will be nothing hidden that will not be exposed and brought out openly in the light. (Luke 8:16-18)

- God has in His perfect timing when everything will be revealed for the honored and the humiliated.
1. God's exaltation is upon the humbled. (vs. 11)
 - Jesus makes it clear that the "humbled" will be exalted. (vs. 11)
 - Jesus didn't say, "Whoever humbles himself will possibly be exalted."
 - God resists (opposes, set Himself against) the proud (self-exalted, boastful, haughty, self-sufficient), but gives grace (favor, blessings, divine influence upon the heart) to the humble (humiliated, cast down, lowly, or low degree). (1 Peter 5:5)
 - Humble yourself (bring low or lower yourself) under the mighty hand of God, that He may exalt you (elevate, lift up) in due time. (1 Peter 5:6)
 - Jesus Christ is our perfect example of honor, humiliation and humility (Matthew 17:1-12, 27:1-26)
 1. The Transfiguration of Jesus on a mountain. (Matthew 17:1-12).
 - The disciples (Peter, James and John), witnessed the glory of God shining upon His face and His clothes became as white as the light. (vs. 1-2)
 - The disciples witnessed Moses (who represented the Law), and Elijah (who represented the Prophets) talking to Jesus. Jesus would fulfill both. (vs. 3)
 - Peter, James and John witnessed the heavenly voice of God saying about His Son Jesus Christ, "This is My beloved Son in who I am well pleased." (vs. 5)
 - Peter, James and John witnessed the revealing of Christ's Deity, His identity, His Ministry mission, His death and His coming Kingdom. (vs. 6-12)
 2. Pontius Pilate (the Roman governor), asked Jesus a question, "Are You the King of the Jews? Jesus said to him, "It is as you say." While being accused by the chief priests and elders, He answered nothing. (Matthew 27:11-12)

- Pilate said to Jesus, “Do You not hear how many things they testify against You?” But Jesus answered not one word. Pilate marveled greatly. (Matthew 27:13-14)
- Pilate could pardon one prisoner, Barabbas (notorious prisoner) or Jesus Christ (innocent man). Pilate’s wife called Jesus a “just Man.” (vs. 15-19)
- The chief priests and elders persuaded the multitudes to ask for Barabbas and destroy Jesus. Pilate asked them, “Which of the two do you want me to release to you? They shouted, Barabbas.” (vs. 20-21)
- Pilate asked them, “What should I do with Jesus who is called the Christ?” They all said, “Let Him be crucified.” (vs. 22-23)
- Pilate washed his hands before the crowd saying, “I am innocent of the blood of this just Person.” (vs. 24)
- Pilate released Barabbas and Jesus was scourged (whipped), he delivered Him to be crucified. (vs. 26)
- The soldiers took Jesus to the palace and gathered the whole garrison of soldiers around Him. (vs. 27)
- They stripped Him and put a scarlet robe on Him. (vs. 28)
- They twisted a crown of thorns, put it on His head and a reed in His right hand. They bowed down before Him and mocked Him, saying, Hail, King of the Jews! (vs. 29)
- They spat on Him, and took the reed and struck Him on His head. (vs. 30)
- After mocking Him, they removed His robe off of Him, and put His own clothes on Him, and led Him away to be crucified. (vs. 31)
- They crucified Him, and divided His garments, casting lots that it might fulfill what was spoken by the prophet. “They divided My garments among them, and for My clothing they cast lots.” (vs. 35)
- As they sat and watched over Him, putting over His head the accusation written against Him: “This is Jesus the King of the Jews.” (vs. 36)

- He was crucified with two robbers. Those who passed by blasphemed Him, wagging their heads and saying, “You who destroy the temple and build it in three days, save Yourself! “If You are the Son of God, come down from the cross.” (vs. 38-40)
- The chief priests, scribes and elders continued to mock Him saying, “He saved others, but Himself He cannot save. If He is the King of Israel, let Him now come down from the cross, and we will believe Him. He trusted in God; let Him deliver Him now if He will have Him; for He said, “I am the Son of God.” (vs. 41-43)
- Even the two robbers who were crucified with Him reviled (verbally abused, spoke harshly) to Him. (vs. 44)
- In Galatians 3:10-14, Paul settled the claim among these believers, that justification is by faith in Jesus Christ and not by the law.
- Abraham believed in the promise of God, therefore God counted his faith for righteousness. (Genesis 15:1-6)
- God promised Abraham that all the nations would be blessed through his seed – This is referring to Jesus Christ. (Genesis 3:8-15, 12:1-3, 17:1-7, Galatians 3:15-16)
- The blessing came by faith in God, and not by the works of the law. Those who rely and remain under the law are under a curse. (Galatians 3:10, Deuteronomy 27:26)
- No earthly human being is fully able to obey all the laws of God without stumbling – therefore making them guilty of breaking all them all. (James 2:10)
- Jesus Christ is the only One who can deliver mankind from the curse of the law (sin, guilt, condemnation and eternal death).
- Jesus Christ is the fulfillment of the promise to Abraham. (Galatians 3:10-14)
- Jesus Christ is the only one who fulfilled the righteous requirement of the law. No other human being can state that claim.
- Jesus Christ bore the curse of the law. He was declared a sinner, condemned to be crucified to death on the Cross.
- Jesus Christ is the only one who can present us faultless or blameless before the presence of God. (Jude 1:24-25)

- Jesus suffered “humiliation” for our sake, that we won’t have to suffer humiliation throughout all eternity. (John 10:10, Romans 6:23, 2 Peter 3:9)
- The Third thing we must study and examine is “Humility” in this parable. (vs. 11-14)
 1. Jesus Christ demonstrated “humility” while facing humiliation. (Philippians 2:5-11, John 13:1-17)
 - Everything Jesus did in the earth was about pleasing and honoring God, whether being honored or dishonored, or while facing humiliation and suffering.
 - What does the word “humility” mean?
 1. It means lowliness of mind. It doesn’t mean to think negative of yourself, but to not be high-minded, prideful, haughty and arrogant.
 2. It means walking in total submission and dependency upon God.
 3. It should never be viewed as weakness or one who lacks confidence and courage. But rather a person who is sold-out to Christ and who puts their complete confidence in Him and the power of the Holy Spirit. (2 Corinthians 12:7-10)
 4. It’s never self-serving and self-exalting, but always involves serving God and others. (Matthew 20:20-28)
