The Just Shall Live by Faith

Hebrews 10:38

- The Scripture is quoted one time in the Old Testament and three times in the New Testament.
  - In the book of Habakkuk 2:4 is the first time we see this phrase.
  - The contrast here is between people of faith and people who arrogantly trust themselves and leave God out of their lives.
  - This verse is used three times in the New Testament and a different point is emphasized each time it is used.
1. Who are the just (Romans 1:17)?
    - A. Man has a serious problem – that of thinking he is righteous.
      - The only way a man can live with God is to be made righteous.

B. The answer to a man's problem is faith.

- Very simply, the whole life of the believer is to be a life of faith, from beginning faith to ending faith, from faith to faith.

2. How shall the just live (Gal. 3:11)? "The just shall live by faith."

- "Shall live" means – to live, to stay alive, be preserved; to flourish, to enjoy life; to live in happiness, and to live continuously.

A. The law carries with it a curse (Gal. 3:10).

B. There is righteousness, which is of the law.

C. Jesus Christ delivers man from the curse of the law (Gal. 3:13).

- It also means that Jesus Christ accomplished the same purpose that God intended the law, except much more.

3. By what power does a person live (Hebrews 10:38)? "The just shall live by faith."

- The Christian believer is to walk by faith, not by feelings and emotions.

A. The believer is to commit his life and his problems to God – all day long – throughout all his waking hours.

B. The believer is to deny self.

C. The believer is to act as though he has made a commitment to God.

D. While the believer is doing what he should be doing, he is to be asking God for His grace and strength.
